

UNESCO Chair on Population, Migrations and Development

United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization • University Twinning and Networking Programme

39th session
UNESCO General Conference 2017

La Sapienza, University of Rome

Italy

Current areas of activity

- Demography underlines causes and implications of population movements and international migration flows.
- Economic analysis evaluates the impact of migrations in sending and receiving countries.

Future Activities to address the SDGs

- Education of researchers and post graduate students
- Production of updated scientific papers and reports
- Guidelines for policy makers
- International conferences and seminars
- Interim workshops in different world universities
- UNESCO Chair Network
- Chair website and Newsletter

Chair holder: Alessandra De Rose alessandra.derose@uniroma1.it

Scientific Coordinator: Raimondo Cagiano Azevedo

raimondocagianodeazevedo@uniroma1.it

<https://www.memotef.uniroma1.it/ricerca/cattedra-unesco>

Contact: unescochair@uniroma1.it

UNESCO EDUCATION SECTOR

